

Through the sharing of God's love, we reach out and assist those in need so that all may live their lives more fully and more capably.

Contact: Brett King
InterServ (816) 238-4511, ext. 222 or (cell) 262-3675
bking@interservstjoe.org

109th ANNUAL MEETING FOR INTERSERV SET FOR MAY 21

OPEN HOUSE AND BUILDING BLESSING OF INTERSERV COMMUNITY CENTER BEGINS NEW ERA IN COMMUNITY SERVICE IN ST. JOSEPH

St. Joseph, Mo. _ The 109th Annual Meeting of Interfaith Community Services - InterServ - will be held on Monday, May 21, 5:30 p.m., at the newly constructed InterServ Community Center, 5400 King Hill Avenue.

The gathering of InterServ staff, volunteers and supporters will be the first official function convened at the new facility.

Highlighting the meeting will be the presentation of the David G. Berger Community Service Awards. Those receiving recognition in 2018 include Eastside Rotary, Ms. Ally Browning, Mr. Philip Alier Deng (South Sudanese Congregation of St. Joseph), and Mrs. Jean Brown. The keynote speaker for the event is Mr. Wesley Barnett, 2-time Olympian for the nationally known Wesley Weightlifting Club.

InterServ will recognize outgoing board members for their contributions to InterServ during their time on the board of directors as well as introduce new board members to the community. InterServ Executive Director Mr. David Howery will give highlights of 2017 with an annual report.

Prior to the annual meeting, InterServ will hold a 1-hour Open House at 4:00 p.m. for anyone wishing to tour the facility see our new programming spaces. Then, at 5:00 p.m. InterServ, with the help of the St. Joseph Chamber of Commerce, will host a ribbon cutting and building blessing in the East parking lot next to King Hill Avenue. Dinner will follow at 5:30 p.m. in the gymnasium.

These events are free of charge, courtesy of Heffernan Insurance. For those wishing to eat dinner at the annual meeting please RSVP by Wednesday, May 11 to Stacy Bollmeyer at sbollmeyer@interservstjoe.org or by calling (816) 238-4511, ext. 137.

InterServ is a faith-based, not-for-profit, human service organization that brings people together in service and advocacy to help children, youth, families and seniors live life more fully and more capably. InterServ has been united in this service to St. Joseph and the surrounding communities since 1909.

- InterServ 2018 -