BUSY TIME FOR CURRENT AND PAST WESLEY WEIGHTLIFTERS

CURRENT LIFTERS HAVE EVENTS SCHEDULED

St. Joseph, Mo. _ The Wesley Weightlifters have plenty on its plate in the upcoming weeks with current and former lifters from the club slated to be front and center.

USA national team member Marissa Klingseis will compete in the 2018 Senior Pan American Championships in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. Marissa will be departing for the Dominican on Tuesday, May 15th. Klingseis is the top ranked female in the 90kilo division entering the competition.

Wesley teammate Zack Burks will be competing in the USA Weightlifting National Championships, May 24-27 in Overland Park, Kansas. Burks takes the platform on Sunday, May 27 to compete in the 105kilo division.

Recently Burks also qualified for the 2018 Junior World Championships to be held later on this summer.

FORMER WESLEY LIFTER INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME

Former Wesley weightlifter and current youth weightlifting coach Pete Kelley, a 1996 Olympian representing Wesley, will be inducted into the USA Weightlifting Hall of Fame on Sunday, May 27 in York, Pennsylvania. Kelley, one of two Olympians who trained at the Wesley Center, set numerous Wesley team records during his competition days and looks to pass his knowledge of the sport down to the youth of the St. Joseph area.
